Notes for ABIGAIL FOWLER:
[Fowlers_091107.FTW]

In 1841, on Valentine's Day, John Edward married, second, Abigail Fowler. He was 32, and she was two years younger.

These families must have known each other and come from New York State together. She and her brother, Anson Fowler must have been very close because tracing them through census after census in Hillsdale, the two families always lived next door to each other. The Fowlers were especially numerous in Hillsdale, three Fowler brothers opening a store there in 1830. Abigail's father, William Fowler, took out patents on in all 240 acres of land between 1834 and 1838. Anson also filed for a patent on 40 acres of land.

John and Abigail had five children:

Maria Wooster 1842-?
Charles Wooster 1843-1877 m. Helen Hitchcock
Homer Wooster 1845-1892
John Wooster 1847-1921 m. Florence Howard
Marilla Wooster 1852-?

John Edward joined the Free Will Baptist church in 1838, and was a deacon in the Locust Corners church (Pittsford) twenty-four years.

John believed strongly in the value of an education. Records show Hillsdale College founded in 1844 by "a group of Free-Will Baptist ministers and laymen." Abigail and John Edward, married three years then, may have been part of that group. They sent all their children there, except for Flora, John's child by his first marriage. This was most unusual for the time. In his will, he gave $10,000 to the church.

John Wooster, his son and the family lawyer, was named executor for the estate of John Edward Lacey Wooster.

In his accounts the notation, "$12 ticket from Dowagiac to Hillsdale and back" is mentioned several times. Petition for Letters of Administration for the estate were filed 13 January 1885. The heirs were named as:

Abigail Wooster, widow and his children:
Flora Wood, of Manton, Wexford Cty., Michigan
Charles Wooster, of Silver Creek, Nebr.
Homer Wooster, of Selma, Calif.
John Wooster, of Dowagiac, Mich.
Marilla C. Wooster, of Jacksonville, Ill.

Notes for JOHN EDWARD LACY WOOSTER:
[Fowlers_091107.FTW]

John Edward Lacy Wooster was born in West Avon NY on 19 Feb 1809. His youngest brother, David Wooster, was born the year their father died, 1825. He is the David Wooster who subsequently became a doctor, lived in San Francisco, and later wrote the book Woosters in America.

In 1805, the Territory of Michigan was opened for settlement, and by the Spring of 1827 the first settlers were farming land in the southeastern part of the territory, now Hillsdale. In those years, this was "out west", and the lure of new land was irresistible.

Before 1837, John Edward, his first wife Betsy, their daughter, Flora, and his newly widowed mother Sallie Wright Wooster left Jasper, Steuben County, New York where his father had died. They came to Adrian, Michigan. Sallie remained there for the rest of her life.

In the land records of 12 July 1837, it is recorded that "John E. L. Wooster of the Township of Barre, County of Orleans, New York" purchased Section 22 SW quarter of section 6 of Wheatland Township, Michigan. On 29 June same year, he purchased section 27, west half of the SW quarter, adding to his farm.

He married, first, Betsy (surname unknown) and had one daughter, Flora Wooster. Betsy died in 1837 at age 26, a few months after the birth of Flora. Betsy and Flora are both buried in the Wooster family plot in Church's Corners cemetery near Hillsdale.

In 1841, on Valentine's Day, John Edward married, second, Abigail Fowler. He was 32, and she was two years younger.

Notes for RALPH VANVOORHIS:

[Fowlers_091107.FTW]

From Landmarks of Monroe County, NY

by William F. Peck (1895)

Part III, p. 17 - 18

Van Voorhis, James, was a native of Passaic county, N. J., descended from an old and noted Holland Dutch family. In 1816, James, who was a harness maker, drove with his team to Western New York, located in Wayne county, and after ten years settled permanently a little north of Parma Center, where he became a successful farmer and business man. His children were John, Albert and Catherine, born in New Jersey; and Albert 2d, Rachel A., wife of William McKinney, born in Wayne county; Ralph and Hannah J., wife of John Van Derbeck, born in Parma. Ralph was born July 19, 1826, and at the age of twenty-one he worked his father's farm, continuing until 1853, when he went to Michigan and bought a farm near Kalamazoo, but ill health forced him to return and he located at Parma Center as a blacksmith. A little later he bought a farm in Riga, living there a year. After working for a time on his brother's farm, Mr. Van Voorhis purchased a farm in the northeast part of the town of Ogden, which he still owns, and where he resided until 1887, when he removed to Spencerport. Ralph Van Voorhis has always been an industrious and reliable man. He began business with but little means, but has by energy and thrift obtained a competence. He has been a member of the M. E. Church since childhood, and for more than thirty years has been its trustee, being now steward and treasurer. He has twice crossed this continent, and in 1878 crossed the Atlantic Ocean and visited Europe and the eastern continent. He is much interested in Indian relics, of which he has several of note. His first wife was Mary Fowler of Riga, by whom he had two children, who died young. He married second, Harriet A., daughter of Gilbert Reynolds of Pittsford, and widow of Henry Colt. Gilbert Reynolds came from Putnam county in an early day, and died in the town of Pittsford at the advanced age of ninety-four years.

Notes for FRANK GRIDLEY FOWLER:

[Fowlers_091107.FTW]

All Genealogical and Family History of the State of Connecticut, Vol. I-IV

(IV) Frank Gridley , son of Anson (2) Fowler , was born April 24, 1836 , at Wheatland, Michigan . After attending the public schools of that section he entered a private institution, but abandoned it after a few terms. He did not relinquish his purpose, however, but pursued the studies of geometry, physics, chemistry, mechanical drawing and shorthand successfully without the aid of a teacher.

In the latter study he was particularly interested and was soon called to fill a position tendered by Professor O. S. Fowler , the noted author, and lecturer on phrenology, Mr. F. G. Fowler , being kindly recommended by Andrew J. Graham . He joined Professor Fowler in the spring of 1857 at Cincinnati, Ohio , and traveled with him, visiting all the principal cities of the United States and Canada .

After spending two years with Professor Fowler he located in Springfield, Illinois , with a view of taking up legislative reporting, but the appropriation for this purpose failing and being offered a position as tutor, he accepted it and taught for several years in Springfield and vicinity. During this period he was awarded a diploma by the department of public instruction, which entitled him to teach any school in Illinois during his life without further examination. This was the highest honor possible to pay any teacher, and was awarded only to those who had proved themselves successful, and after a rigid examination by the state superintendent.

During this period he often had calls to do reporting. In 1864 , when the Union party found itself obliged to carry on a war at the front and a presidential election at the rear, he reported patriotic speeches, which were published. Among the speakers were eminent statesmen, famous generals, and local speakers of note, whose sentiments were sometimes couched in homely phrase, but aglow with patriotic fire and which told with the masses. Among some of the speakers reported were Governor Yates , Governor Oglesby , Senator Wilkinson , President Andrew Johnson , General Sherman , General Logan , General Sickles and many others.

Soon after this his reporting practice was interrupted and his energies directed in the channel of mechanical engineering. At the request of one of his country friends he constructed a novel windmill, which was quite extensively used in that locality in lifting water from wells. In studying upon this theme he perceived the device was not merely a windmill, but a propellor as well, and could be used for propulsion, steering and manoeuvring of vessels. Accordingly patents were secured and it was embodied in model form and was exhibited at Chicago, Buffalo and New York City, and finally resulted in locating him at Bridgeport, Connecticut. For this device he was subsequently awarded a medal by the American Institute, and a diploma by the Centennial Commission, it having been applied to several steam vessels. Among them may be mentioned the beautiful little steam yacht, "Bonito," which was a part of his centennial exhibit, and located on the Schuylkill, and executed, with the centennial judges aboard, many intricate manoeuvres. Among these was one describing a figure eight around two buoys, placed half the length of the boat apart, without touching them, and while steaming at full speed, both in going ahead and also going astern. The performance of this boat excited a good deal of interest among foreign exhibitors, and was described at length in London Engineering. She was sold to a gentleman in Virginia, and was afterward the first boat to reach the wreck of the United States steamer, "Huron," at Cape Hatteras, and rescue the survivors. Another vessel was the United States torpedo boat, "Alarm," the hull being designed by Admiral Porter, the engine by John Roach, and the propelling apparatus by Mr. Fowler. Admiral Porter in his report to the secretary of the navy said of her, "that in steering, manoeuvring and handling she had no equal in the navies of the world." On one occasion General Grant was invited on board to witness her performance and was particularly interested in the celerity of her manoeuvres, exclaiming 420 enthusiastically to those present, "see her turn, just see her turn."

Shortly after this Mr. Fowler discovered that he had no pecuniary interest in the enterprise, and he abandoned all further effort in that direction. A friend happening to know that he was a stenographer called him in to report a case. This call was followed by a second and a third, and within less than three years, without having made any effort or ever intending to enter the shorthand field again, he found himself doing an extensive shorthand business. In 1884 a general stenographic law was passed by the Connecticut legislature, the measure being brought about mainly by Mr. Fowler's patrons and such friends as they could interest in other parts of the state. Mr. Fowler was appointed to an official position, the signatures of nearly every attorney in the county appearing on the application. He employed the best of assistance, and did an immense amount of work in that section of Connecticut, being the first to produce a daily transcript on the typewriter. Mr. Fowler was the author of two works on shorthand, and of a process of writing shorthand, which under some circumstances admits of very great speed. As an instance may be given the reporting of the Quarto-Millennial Anniversary of the Old Stratford Church, which consisted in part of fifteen five minute speeches, delivered in rapid succession, and in which some of the speakers covered twelve hundred and eighty-four words, as appears by the printed report, and concerning which the chairman of the committee of publication stated, "the stenographic report of that occasion is an unceasing marvel to me."

Mr. Fowler married, October 1, 1884, in Kansas, Jennie Bell, born in Cincinnati, Ohio, daughter of George Clinton and Sarah Jane (Williams) Farmer. George Clinton Farmer was born in Bath, England, October 10, 1827, died September 19, 1908, at Oskaloosa, Ohio. He was a carpenter by trade and at one time operated a saw mill at Williamsburg, Ohio; later he engaged in the grocery business, wholesale and retail, and subsequently added a general line of hardware. He retired in 1901. He was active in public life and held various positions of trust and honor. His wife, Sarah Jane (Williams) Farmer, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, where her marriage occurred; her father, John S. Williams, was a noted civil engineer and prominent citizen of Cincinnati. Children of George Clinton and Sarah Jane Farmer: 1. William G., resides at Duluth, Minnesota; married Emma Jennie Webb, of Greenleaf, Minnesota; children: Leroy, Carl, Frederick, Lee Farmer. 2. Jennie Bell, aforementioned. 3. George Clinton Jr. 4. Charles Edward, married Anna Kirkpatrick; son, George Edward Farmer. 5. Sadie May, married Judge J. C. Blanchard, of Oskaloosa, Ohio. Children of Frank Gridley and Jennie Bell (Farmer) Fowler: Frederick A. and Francis C., twins, born September 17, 1887. Both studied at the International Correspondence School, Scranton, Pennsylvania; both are draughtsmen in Bridgeport. As children they resembled each other so nearly as to often puzzle parents and friends to distinguish them. Mrs. Fowler is also a stenographer and one of the few women who have succeeded in transcribing notes taken in court by another person.
