Notes for Henry Sharp:

Mount Pleasure, 500 acres, was originally patented by William Sharp in 1673. Mount Pleasure passed without partition from William Sharp of Talbot County (d. 1699) to a latter-day descendent, Henry Sharp of Caroline County (d. 1795). Henry devised this land to his six children, namely, Rachael, Peter, Solomon, Ann, William, and Elizabeth, share and share alike. Accordingly, Mount Pleasure was partitioned horizontally into narrow strips. Of the Northern half...Ann was allotted the strip immediately below Rachael's No. 3...Ann and her husband, William Manship, sold parcel No. 3 in 1804. Origins of Caroline County, Maryland from Land Plats, Volume II, Eleanor F. Horsey, 1981. Pages 26-28. ~~~~~ Henry Sharp is the father of Rev. Solomon Sharp per a journal written by the hand of his granddaughter, Ann B. (Sharp) Maginniss (wife of Rev. William Maginniss). The original journal is in the possession of Helen J. (Ambrose) McCall gr8star1@@cox.net. On an old paper resembling entries in a family bible, lists the children of Pricilla and Henry Sharp as well as the entry for Henry Sharp as follows: "Henry Sharp father of the above children departed this life February the 13th, 1795. Henry Sharp Sr. was born Nov. 27th, 1736" The "old paper" is in handwriting that seems to match other old letters written by Jemima (Budd) Sharp. The "old paper" is in the possession of Helen (Ambrose) McCall.

Notes for James Gettys:

In 1761, one of these early settlers, Samuel Gettys, established a tavern in the area. Just twenty-five years later, his son James had laid out a town of 210 lots with a central town square on the land surrounding the tavern. The town today is Gettysburg. At this time, Gettysburg was part of York County. But by 1790, the growing population of the area decided to separate from York County.

James Gettys, the founder of Gettysburg, sold his first plot of land in 1787 to John Troxell, Sr. In 1804, Mr. Troxell opened the Sign of the Buck tavern and roadhouse to accommodate those traveling to the western frontier of Pennsylvania and beyond. As our nation grew and Gettysburg became the county seat, this establishment grew to house more travelers. By 1863, the town of Gettysburg was booming with 2,400 residents and many businesses. The hotel, then known as the Union Hotel, served as a hospital for the wounded soldiers after the battle. Indeed, the events that transpired during those three long days in July forever changed the course of our nation's history, Gettysburg's history and this hotel's history.

1785, James Gettys purchased 116 acres of his father's land including the tavern and laid out the town of Gettysburg, the seat of Adams County PA. Lived where the town of Gettysburg now stands. James Gettys laid out the town in 1790, in anticipation that it would become the county seat of a new county. His expectations were realized in 1800, when Adams County was created out of the western part of York. He built the first house in the new town; it was used as a tavern for many years but was accidentally destroyed by fire in 1880. He was sheriff 1803-06, and represented the county in the Pennsylvania Legislature, 1807-08-09. He was a brigadier-general in the State Militia in 1812. He was a man of sound judgement and great business activity.

Stephen [Jr] was mentioned in the meeting records of the Eastern Shore Quakers starting with his first marriage being a disorderly proceeding [=marriage outside the Quaker faith]: 18/3/1685 It was reported that Stephen Durdon [Jr] has brought a blemish upon truth and friends [=Society of Friends] through his disorderly proceedings in taking a wife and other disorderly proceedings. QMES, p. 9. 12/7/1695 Stephen Dordon [Jr] offered a paper of condemnation [of himself for marrying outside the Society]. QMES, p. 16. 28/9/1695 Stephen Dordon [Jr] and Rebeccah [(Woolchurch)] Anderson declared their intentions to marry. QMES, p. 17. Stephen Dordan [Jr], Talb Co, planter, and Rebeckah Anderson, relique of Thomas Anderson, [were married on] 11 Jan 1695 [=1696 'NS'], at meeting house near Tuckaho. ESVR 1:52. 27/6/1696. Rebeccah Dordon's paper of condemnation was read. QMES, p. 17. Stephen Durden [Jr] had originally acquired land in Maryland from his neighbor John Pitt: 14 Oct. 1668 John Pitt to Stephen Durdy [Jr] of Va. - 700 acres "John's Necke" in King's Creek, north side Choptank River adjoining Matt. Worgan. Wit: John Cooke, Humphrey Jennings. QRES, p. 25. Stephen Durden [Jr] signed his last will and testament on 2 January 1704; it was probated 6 years later on 1 April 1710. In his will, he named his wife Rebecca as executrix. He listed his daughter Africa, child of his first wife, and his other 4 children by his second wife: Stephen [3rd], Joseph, Ledia, and Rebecca Durden [Jr].
