Notes for John Linn:

[Presbyterian Church underwent a schism [about 1745 from the ``Great Awakening'r, a religious transformation which began about 1738 by the Wesleys as well as George Whitefield]. Few denominations were more drastically affected by the great Awakening than the Presbyterians... Conservatives were contemptuous,, dubious.. and sure the church would degrade itself by diluting its message and making religion ``easy'r for the common man.. other Presbyterians, however, regarded Whitefield as a true and timely prophet... by 1745, this divergence of opinion had reached a stage of such virulence that the Presbyterian Church underwent a schism... the bitterness of dissention that divided the Presbyterian Church gradually abated and by 1758, the breach between the Old Side and the New Side was formally healed....Nether side ``won'r, but the church that came together in 1758 was considerable different from the church that came together in 1745.... Committed to missionary enterprise, carried on almost wholly by American funds and by

Notes for James Gettys:

In 1761, one of these early settlers, Samuel Gettys, established a tavern in the area. Just twenty-five years later, his son James had laid out a town of 210 lots with a central town square on the land surrounding the tavern. The town today is Gettysburg. At this time, Gettysburg was part of York County. But by 1790, the growing population of the area decided to separate from York County. _____ James Gettys, the founder of Gettysburg, sold his first plot of land in 1787 to John Troxell, Sr. In 1804, Mr. Troxell opened the Sign of the Buck tavern and roadhouse to accommodate those traveling to the western frontier of Pennsylvania and beyond. As our nation grew and Gettysburg became the county seat, this establishment grew to house more travelers. By 1863, the town of Gettysburg was booming with 2,400 residents and many businesses. The hotel, then known as the Union Hotel, served as a hospital for the wounded soldiers after the battle. Indeed, the events that transpired during those three long days in July forever changed the course of our nation's history, Gettysburg's history and this hotel's history. _____ 1785, James Gettys purchased 116 acres of his father's land including the tavern and laid out the town of Gettysburg, the seat of Adams County PA. Lived where the town of Gettysburg now stands. James Gettys laid out the town in 1790, in anticipation that it would become the county seat of a new county. His expectations were realized in 1800, when Adams County was created out of the western part of York. He built the first house in the new town; it was used as a tavern for many years but was accidently destroyed by fire in 1880. He was sheriff 1803-06, and represented the county in the
